INFORMED CONSENT TO PARTICIPATE IN STUDENT RESEARCH

Minority Serving Institutions Partnership Program (MSIPP) Principal Investigator: Dr. Gwen Lee-Thomas

You are invited to participate in a survey, focus group, or interview. The survey is to learn about the educational experiences and career decisions of students who participate in MSIPP related activities. You will be asked to respond to a brief survey about your educational experiences and career plans or share your thoughts in a focus group or interview.

The Minority Serving Institution Partnership Program is a National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA) funded program that recruits students at all levels and engages them in various STEM disciplines important to our global workforce.

The purpose of the survey, focus group, or interview is to determine the extent to which your consortium's activities have had an impact on broadening the pool of candidates interested in STEM disciplines and careers. Surveys will take 7 to 10 minutes and focus group interviews typically take 30 to 45 minutes.

If you choose to take part in this research, you will be asked to do the following:

- Take part in a survey as part of MSIPP program related to the internships, camps, or research experiences in which you have participated.
- Give approval for specific personal identifying information to be shared as part of the research to create a profile of participants to be presented in aggregate and not as an individual.
- Give approval for your responses to the surveys, focus groups, and interviews to be used in the researchers' final report and other researchers' future reports, publications, and presentations.

There are no known risks with these surveys, focus groups, or interviews. There is no direct benefit but that the evaluation of the MSIPP program will determine how the activities implemented by the consortium members are helping to meet the goal of creating a pipeline of future candidates for Department of Energy's Nuclear Security Enterprise, other government agencies, and the industry of STEM related fields. You can decide not to participate in any data-collection activity, at any time, and still participate in the MSIPP program. Participation is completely voluntary.

If you have any questions about the survey please contact Dr. Gwen Lee-Thomas, External Evaluator, Quality Measures LLC at 757-410-9812 or email at gleethomas@qualitymeasuresllc.com.

Confidentiality: Every effort will be made to protect the data and to limit the use and disclosure of your personal information, including research study and (if applicable) medical records, to the research team and others who have a need to review this information. Other organizations that may access information from this study include the IRB and the National Nuclear Security Administration leadership team of the MSIPP program in the Department of Energy. Your information collected as part of this research, even if identifiers are removed, will not be used or distributed for future research studies.
